

Broke Bibliophiles Bangalore, Meetup #96
31st May 2026 @The Bookworm, Church Street

Summary (via ChatGPT)

The May 2026 edition of Broke Bibliophiles Bangalore (BBB) Meetup #96, held at The Bookworm on Church Street, brought together 18 participants who collectively discussed 43 books, making it one of the club's more wide-ranging reading months. The selections spanned an impressive variety of genres, including literary fiction, crime and mystery, science fiction, fantasy, historical fiction, memoir, graphic literature, business and management, popular science, and regional Indian literature. Members explored works from both contemporary and classic authors, with discussions ranging from experimental novels such as House of Leaves and If on a Winter's Night a Traveler to beloved classics like Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone, Journey to the Centre of the Earth, and A Passage to India.

Several notable trends emerged from the reading list. Mystery and crime fiction featured strongly, with titles by Stuart Turton, Arthur Conan Doyle, Vikram Chandra, Yukito Ayatsuji, and Uketsu. Japanese literature also had a significant presence through works such as Days at the Morisaki Bookshop, Butter, and The Restaurant of Lost Recipes. Indian authors were well represented through books by Volga, Neha Dixit, Vasudhendra, Jeyamohan, Shashi Deshpande, and others, while nonfiction discussions covered topics as diverse as management, economics, artificial intelligence, cricket history, and India's space program. In addition to the member presentations, the group engaged in a broader discussion of 11 additional books, bringing the total number of books mentioned during the meetup to 54, reflecting the club's continued enthusiasm for diverse reading and lively literary exchange.
